O'Shea Courtroom Dedication

On May 24th, Mineola Justice Court was renamed in honor of late Village Justice John P. O'Shea who passed away in 2019 after serving the Village for 24 years.

At the dedication ceremony, friends, family and colleagues spoke of Judge O'Shea's professionalism, compassion and sense of humor.

Trustee Solosky Sworn In

Trustee Donna Solosky was sworn in by Mayor Paul Pereira after running unopposed in the March election. Trustee Solosky is finishing the four-year term left vacant by Mayor Pereira following his election last year.

"It really has been an honor and a privilege to serve with Trustee Solosky this last year," said Mayor Pereira. "I am so happy with the decision that I and this Board made in appointing her, and I'm so happy about the decision this community made in reelecting Trustee Solosky. She certainly has been a tremendous addition to this Board."
