Resolution No. 316-14

Classification of the Proposed Action under SEQRA

WHEREAS, The Incorporated Village of Mineola (hereafter “Village) Board of Trustees has received the Application as stated aforesaid at 199 Second Street for a special permit seeking relaxation of the Village’s Municipal Code with respect to number of units, site plan approval, use, front yard and side yard setbacks, height, unit size, building coverage, parking and loading, and architectural review (hereafter “Proposed Action”); and

WHEREAS, SEQRA §617.6 provides a means for an agency to coordinate with other involved agencies to determine the most appropriate lead agency for review of an, Action; the regulation provides a thirty (30) day time period from the date of service, or if all involved agencies respond prior to the expiration of the 30 day time period, the Lead Agency may be designated; and

WHEREAS the Village Board of Trustees circulated a letter of coordinated review with the other agencies involved in the approval of the Proposed Action, and in that correspondence, declared its Notice of Intent to serve as Lead Agency in connection with the environmental review of the Proposed Action; and

WHEREAS no agencies responded to the coordination request indicating opposition to the Village Board of Trustees assuming lead agency status for reviews of the Proposed Action and the 30 day time period from the date of service of the letter of coordinated review has elapsed; ant

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees hereby declares itself Lead Agency in the review of the Proposed Action for the Village of Mineola, Count of Nassau, State of New York; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees hereby classifies the Proposed Action as Type 1.
