Mayor Paul A. Pereira reviewed the holiday sanitation changes, adding that garbage is being left outside over the weekend and is becoming a problem; encouraged residents to check the Village website, the Village Facebook page, and sign up for email reminders for sanitation regulations and changes; announced that there will be a Memorial Day parade and ceremony this year which will be organized by the Mineola Fire Department and Boy Scouts, with the Village assisting as needed.

Trustee Janine Sartori stated she received the Summer Recreation Bulletin, and encouraged residents get their pool passes early, and commented that she is looking forward to the summer concerts in the park.

Trustee Paul S. Cusato congratulated Chief Andrew Martone, Jr., First Assistant Chief Domingos Magalhaes, and Second Assistant Chief Bryan Strauss who were sworn in by Mayor Pereira on April 11; discussed the Chamber of Commerce meeting, and announced that the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast fundraiser will be held Sunday, April 24 at McDonald's from 8:00 am to 1:00 pm.

Trustee Jeffrey M. Clark discussed the Easter Monday commemoration on April 18, which was the anniversary of the Easter Rising of 1916.

Trustee Donna M. Solosky reported that the Easter Egg Hunt hosted by Edge City Church was a huge success with over 2,000 participants; stated that she attended the Mineola Fire Department swearing in of officers; stated that she attended the Nassau County Village Officials Association meeting and the Chamber of Commerce meeting, which were both very informative, and encouraged residents to attend the summer concerts and utilize the pool.

Mayor Pereira added that the new firehouse is coming along with the major construction completion target of September or October.
